Chairwoman Janet Nguyen Announces Her Support For Van Tran For Congress

(Garden Grove, CA) – This morning Supervisor Janet Nguyen, Chair of the Orange County Board of Supervisors, hosted a press conference announcing her support for Republican Congressional Candidate Van Tran (CA-47) at Tran's Garden Grove campaign headquarters.

"I'm proud to have Supervisor Nguyen's support for my effort to stop the overspending in Washington DC. We do not always see eye-to-eye on every local issue, but we both wake up every day, looking to work to better our community - And we agree that we cannot let the federal government leave this much debt to the next generation." said Van Tran.

"At a time of high unemployment, our current Congresswoman Loretta Sanchez isn't doing middle-class families any favors by rubber-stamping her party's failed economic policies."

As Southern California voters head to the polls this fall, they have a perfect opportunity to finally hold Pelosi puppet Loretta Sanchez accountable. Sanchez has a very liberal record which will be hard to defend in a moderate district, during an anti-incumbent year when voters are tired of Washington's reckless spending sprees and failed economic policies.

In contrast, Van Tran and Supervisor Janet Nguyen have always worked to restore common sense fiscally responsible policies that our economy needs to get back on track. In Congress, Van Tran aims to protect the next generation with fiscally responsible economic policies--instead of bailouts and reckless overspending.

Both Chairwoman Nguyen and Tran come from immigrant backgrounds and have worked to bring our diverse communities together. Loretta Sanchez, on the other hand, recently said, "The Vietnamese and the Republicans are, with an intensity, trying to take away this seat, this seat that we have done so much for our community, take away this seat..."

Janet and Van both know that our community needs leaders who can bring us together so we can work on turning this economy around and creating jobs for all the families in central Orange County.

In addition, both Nguyen and Tran have long fought for fiscal discipline, honoring our veterans and working to create jobs.

The two recently teamed up for a dedication of a Heroes Memorial Monument depicting five significant figures in United States history at Roger Stanton Park, as well as monuments from Mexico and the Republic of Vietnam.

“Janet and I have long fought for fiscal discipline, honoring our veterans and working to create jobs. Over the last few years, in the heat of battle, some things have been said and done that were over the line, even dragging our families into our political disagreements,” said Van Tran. “I have said things that I wish we could take back. But we have come together today because of the historic opportunity we have to change the course of our country, to restore common sense to Congress and to reduce the debt and put people back to work. Our current Congresswoman would rather bury our kids in debt and spend over a TRILLION dollars than work for the betterment of our community. She is too busy dividing people with racial statements and hanging out at the Playboy Mansion to fix our broken economy. I’m proud to bring people together for a higher cause rather than divide our community. Janet’s support here today gives us tremendous encouragement for our chances in November. Our country needs some checks-and-balances on this overspending.”

Tran and Nguyen have a long history with Tran appointing Nguyen to the Garden Grove traffic and planning commission (200-2004) and supporting her run for the Garden Grove City Council seat Tran vacated in 2004 to run for State Assembly. The two have both fought for fiscal discipline and have protested the Vietnamese Prime Minister on visits to the U.S.
